Natural Medicine with Quantum Field Analysis

Quantum Holistic Centre

INFORMATION GUIDE

INTRODUCTION BY THE CEO

Welcome to AlternativeTherapy.care, a unique Quantum Holistic Centre

Through the years of our experience, we have understood that by conjoining Quantum Information Field technology with Natural Medicine, the arising opportunities are simply unparalleled. New therapeutic options become available in medicine and psychotherapy, and by them we re-shape and expand our definition of 'holistic' into a genuine healing culture.

Owing to quantum physical technology, we can now envision a new concept of man. This concept exists in the higher-dimensional Quantum Information Field, where it can be scanned for blockages, obstacles or imbalances that give rise to various undesirable or debilitating manifestations, like sickness and disease, lack of energy, fatigue, inflammations, degenerations, incoherences, fevers, and of course various mental disorders like anxiety, depression, mood and eating disorders, dementia, etc.

Our mission is to advise and assist our clients in utilizing the inherent healing powers present in nature and human body. We believe that the primary role of a physician is to bring out and enhance this innate healing power, by encompassing dynamic approach to assessing, preventing and treating.

Thank you for your interest in our healing culture. Let us assist your expedition into your own amazing Quantum Information Field. This will undoubtedly provide a new, discovering insight into the past, present and even the future, because time and space do not exist in the realm of quantum physics in the same way they exists here, in our world of classical physics. For this reason are we able to connect, and offer those discovering insights anywhere you may be – because for the higher dimensional Quantum Field, distance is simply irrelevant.

We sincerely pray to be able to serve the deeper purpose behind your interest in our services.

Yours sincerely,

Marko Matsya, CEO

QUANTUM INFORMATION – THE HIDDEN SUBSTANCE

Particles that make up any physical object carry two types of information: classical (about its externals) and quantum. Every object is packed with quantum information. It is preserved indefinitely even if the object itself ceases to exist. This information reveals the hidden details of why's and how's behind the physical object. Quantum Information is actually the language in which the laws of nature are written. This information is contained in the Quantum Field, where it can be accessed and balanced with adequate technology. In 2022, Nobel Prize in Physics was awarded for pioneering Quantum Information science (click here to find out more). We utilize the same science.

AYURVEDA – THE SCIENCE OF HEALING

In our Quantum Holistic Centre, we rely on this most ancient medical science to interpret processes on the physical level, to recognize various patterns and manifestations, but also to advise how to prevent. We give special emphasis on Ayurvedic principles of diet and nutrition, because we find them best defined and by far most efficient. They can be tailored to best suit any individual.

AT ANY DISTANCE, COURTESY OF QUANTUM ENTANGLEMENT AND NON-LOCALITY

We utilize the scientific processes of Quantum Entanglement and Quantum Non-locality in order to connect with, analyse and balance Quantum Information at any distance. Analysing classical information requires physical proximity, but analysing Quantum Information does not. Distance does not exist in the higher realm of Quantum Field. For this reason, we can successfully benefit you wherever in the world you may be – even if you land on Mars.

In the world of Quantum Field, things do not depend on what happens at the place we are in the classical world. There is an instantaneous connection between our Quantum Field technology and you, the two entangled subjects in the Quantum Entanglement process, regardless how far apart you and us may be.

OUR SEVEN FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

1. Promoting, utilizing and enhancing innate healing power of the body and the nature;
2. Most important attitude (in life) is to do no harm;
3. Seeking and rectifying the cause (What is the body communicating by this condition?);
4. Treating the whole person at different manifestations of their consciousness (eight in total);
5. Educating about preventative methods (nutrition, diet, eating habits, lifestyle), the DO's and DON'T's;
6. Enhancing mental and physical wellness – the power of positive attitude, the power of constructive self-confidence;
7. Doctor is a teacher and an assistant. Patient has the cure.

SELF-IMPROVEMENT AS THE BASIS FOR LIFE IN HARMONY

People often get sick when they lose their inner sense of meaning about something in life, by experiencing a dysfunction with their environment. Our aim is to promote the awareness about your meaningful involvement with your environment, since life is always meaningful at all times and in all situations. At every moment, life offers us a specific meaning to comprehend, but we cannot always perceive or understand it. The primary objective of our holistic approach, therefore, is to uplift the person in order to re-connect with the lost intrinsic functionality of a specific situation or specific area of life, by understanding the progressive growth of life. The state of coherence and inner fulfilment happen only through harmonious connections between us and our environment. Re-establishing such harmony is a quick path to recovery.

Researches by Carl Gustav Jung established that repressed unconscious thoughts, feelings, attitudes, trauma and repressions are linked with diseases, imbalances, losses and other serious problems in life.

TREATING AT DIFFERENT LEVELS – MANY FIELDS OF APPLICATION

The special feature of Quantum Information analysis is to offer insight into invisible causes and substances influencing us in any area of life. We then look for the most appropriate ways to balance those influences, both in the higher realm, and on the bodily level. We rely on Ayurvedic analysis as well, in order to understand the situation on bodily level. Ayurveda very effectively interconnects physiology and psychology, and has a lot to say about both. We keep a large Digital Herbal Dispensary – to feed the healing vibrations straight into your Quantum Field, for an effective impact.

It is very important to understand what is happening in us at all levels – from physique to energy flow and regulation, from frequencies and coherences to psychological blockages and troublesome emotions, from inherited dispositions, karmic debts, to systemic family relationships and holistic personality development. Fields of practical application are fundamentally unlimited. Some are mentioned below.

Functional Analysis

- ☞ Metabolism and digestion
- ☞ Hormones & endocrine
- ☞ Gastrointestinal
- ☞ Cell biology
- ☞ Neurology
- ☞ Cardiology
- ☞ Urology
- ☞ Tissue system
- ☞ Organ system

NEW PARADIGM SHIFT INTO DRUGLESS HEALING CULTURE

One of the greatest challenges within the current model of medicine is to break free from the old-school linear thinking. Doctors and medical personnel continue to rely on Newtonian (classical) physics, thus upholding materialistic approach to healing, which usually means treating symptoms and consequences without the perception of the cause. Our drugless Quantum Holistic Centre took a step into a new paradigm by using the principles of Quantum Physics and Natural Medicine, to explain how the process of healing starts by uplifting the consciousness while simultaneously fixing physiological imbalances in the body. When equilibrium is achieved in the Quantum Field by balancing Quantum Information, it proceeds through the mind toward the body.

Alternative and complementary services applied in medicine and psychotherapy took a giant leap into the direction conventional medicine did not yet recognize. Conventional drugs – on top of their side effects – usually do not have the ability to evoke equilibrium. Most of them are therefore - from the perspective of holistic approach - as good as sweeping dirt under the carpet. One of our Quantum Holistic postulates is rather to utilize innate healing powers of the body and the nature. While it may appear that healing takes longer to restore health, a critical review reveals an unparalleled benefit: restored health is perfect and lasting.

DIGITAL HERBAL AND HOMEOPATHIC DISPENSARY

Owing to the advancement of quantum physics, we now have the ability to extract quantum information from herbs and store it in digital form. This is truly exciting and revolutionary.

Everything, including herbs, is consisted of vibrations, frequencies. Those vibrations contain both classical and quantum information. Let us take the well-known Cinnamon as an example. Classical information contained in Cinnamon is that it is brown-red in colour (a vibration), pungent and sweet in taste (another vibration), and has warming energy (yet another vibrational information). Its qualities are light, dry and penetrating. These are very important information in Ayurvedic classification and use. Modern studies have also found volatile oils, diterpenes, tannins, magnesium, etc. This is what makes Cinnamon on the outside. The laws of classical (Newtonian) physics describe its external characteristics.

Quantum Information contained in Cinnamon is understood from its meanings, the subtle vibrational patterns: the 'how's' and the 'why's' of Cinnamon, i.e. its potencies: antimicrobial, probiotic, antioxidant, anti-inflammatory, nervine, adaptogenic, antispasmodic, diaphoretic, alterative. In Ayurvedic language, that is ama-pachana, dipana, krimighna, medhya, rasayana, etc. This is what Cinnamon will do internally. This is its healing effect, and this is the quantum part of Cinnamon. This quantum portion of its vibrating nature has been scanned and recorded into our digital herbal library. It can be administered via Quantum Field.

Our huge Digital Herbal and Homeopathic Dispensary is continually growing. It offers a unique ability to feed the healing essence straight into the Quantum Field of our clients – without the need to take the substance in the conventional manner. Again, this important aspect of our healing culture can be achieved at any distance, as per the laws of quantum physics by which distance does not exist.

QUANTUM WAVE GENETICS

THE ULTIMATE BIO-TOOL FOR HEALTH AND RECOVERY

Wave Genetics is the quantum part of genetics, discovered in Russia in the 1980s by Dr Peter Gariaev. He established as a scientific fact that the genetic structure of the body (human genome) is critically influenced by the information coming from its environment, because – contrary to the previous belief – our personal genetic information is stored not in our genes, but in our personal quantum field. His work continued on ideas by Russian scientists Gurvich and Lubishchev, who postulated in the 1920s and 1930s that our DNA operates primarily at the quantum level, as waves and fields.

In 2021 Peter Gariaev was nominated for the Nobel Prize in medicine for his outstanding discoveries.

Feeding the desirable information into our genetic quantum field has tremendous impulse-giving effect, which assists the body to heal itself. This correct information is like a language of the genes, with its rules, intonations, meanings etc, and that is why this incredibly potent emerging science was officially termed Linguistic Wave Genetics. The concept is similar to how emotions contained within the words and music of your favourite song are recorded in an mp3 file or a CD. When you listen to such musical recording, your current emotions are influenced by the recording of the words and the sound of the music.

However, not only emotions are influenced. At the same time, specific information is being fed into our genetic structure, so we should choose carefully what kind of music are we listening to, and even what kind of language are we associating with, or movies do we watch. In the same way, by listening to sound files of the DNA of natural healing products, we receive their healing instruction.

In Principles of Linguistic-Wave Genetics, Dr Gariaev explained the science:

To create an organism, two genetic programs are required. The first one is geometric, i.e. a scheme, how to design the body. The second program is in the form of a meaningful text which contains instructions and explanations how to use the first program, how to understand and build the organism. These programs exist in the form of "DNA video tapes", which are used by the genetic apparatus, acting like a bio-computer. When the bio-computer reads these video tapes, sound and light images appear that constitute the movie program of the development of the organism. When the creation of a grown-up organism is completed, the movie ends. Then the second movie starts, which contains the instructions for maintenance of the organism for indefinitely long time. Unfortunately, the videotapes containing information about a perfectly healthy organism, get corrupted with time, errors accumulate (DNA mutations). The instructions accumulate errors and the organism gets sick, grows old and dies. It is very likely that these DNA video tapes can be renewed and corrected. With this new understanding of how our genetic apparatus works, completely new technologies for healing a person and extending a person's life become feasible. This is the essence of wave genetics and its practical applications to come.

RE-PROGRAMING DNA BY SOUND AND FREQUENCIES

We at Quantum Holistic Centre create customized Wave Genetics Matrix sound files, which specifically address individual imbalances and evoke our client's health recovery. By listening to this file, one's current DNA expression changes in order to align with the balancing information contained within.

The spatial-temporal (space/time) organization of body is stored in the meaning-giving, lingual information portion of the DNA. That is, in those 98% of human DNA, which were previously wrongly termed as the "junk DNA". During our lifetime, this critically important portion is influenced by all kind of outside sources. Our genes speak their own language, and their language may become corrupted in time.

Once imbalance is identified, it may be corrected with a special Wave Genetics Matrix sound file. This sound file is especially prepared to feed appropriate balancing information into the quantum field of your DNA, by creating so-called DNA Phantom Effect. This effect is actually a fresh quantum field wrapped around your existing, imbalanced DNA. Gradually, this quantum field will rectify genetic imbalance and restore its healthy condition. Initial improvement is usually felt within few days, although constant application is required over longer period.

Your customized sound file will also aim to restore inter-cellular communication by the use of the language with which cells communicate. According to recent researches, it appears this cellular communication language is defined within those 98%, i.e. in our own genetic apparatus. If this apparatus becomes confused or even modified - corrupted just like a computer file - as it does by various modern influences like genetically modified food, ultrasound or various other exposures - our cells will lose their communicative competence. This leads to various diseases and imbalances.

By the use of rectifying Wave Genetics sound files, we help your body to recover by promoting its self-healing powers, or in other words – we re-program your DNA structure by using specific frequencies and the words of the genes.

The beneficial quantum information captured from the DNA of specific healing plants and substances can be directed to defined areas within the body, simply by listening to a specific sound Matrix. Our genome is influenced by this quantum information, and it gradually establishes new informational database, which directs our condition to revert into alignment with healthy state.

Over time, this healing quantum DNA information becomes more established in the genome, resulting in healing, but also more youthful expression of health.

KIND WORDS BY SOME WHO BECAME SICK FOR OUR QUANTUM HOLISTIC STUFF

Balazs - monk, Hungary

I really do not believe in miracles and really don't believe in machines but I have to confess that after sessions with Matsya I felt a radical change in my view of my problem. Namely, the whole thing became more clear and more easy to handle because the confusion has just disappeared and became easy to see the solution.

Yasmina – MD General Practice, UK

I've asked Matsya if he can check my family members who were sent to isolation due to coming into contact with COVID positive person. He diagnosed them with COVID (later confirmed by tests) and treated them successfully. He was always available for any questions and concerns, ready to give useful advice and adjustments to treatments. Thank you! (December 2020)

Evgeni – MD Cardiologist, Bulgaria

Matsya has his unique approach in finding the root of the problems, something that standard healthcare services in general lack nowadays. He combines the right modern tools with traditional wisdom. With his help, everybody is able to find connections between different aspects within his mind and body, and gain knowledge on how to overcome the problem. I am very grateful to him for helping me go through difficult periods, both mentally and physically !

Cecil - psychologist, USA

In my brief association with Matsya, he was able to quickly pinpoint the physical impairment in my body and set me on a course to recovery.

*“Whether you think you can or you think you can't – you are right”
Henry Ford*

Mitja - restaurant owner, Slovenia

In September 2021 I was diagnosed with COVID. Initially I only had breathing difficulties, but later I was admitted to hospital and placed on breathing device and into coma. It was shocking for everyone, I was always healthy and full of energy. Some days later the news came to my friend Matsya who helped me so much during my stay in hospital with his distant quantum therapies. I think something unbelievable happened! When I was in coma, doctors wanted to operate and transplant my lungs, but Matsya's treatments helped so much that I recovered very quickly. Ten days later, I was released. One month later, I went to my doctor for check-up and she said my lungs were as if I never had COVID. I am very grateful to Matsya, he saved my life.

Paul - author, writer, teacher

Throughout entire COVID period I have had ongoing treatment from Matsya and his quantum-physical technology. I think it helped significantly. (October 2020)

Thirusa - financial specialist, South Africa

Matsya is very very helpful and kind. His insights are spot on and I would highly recommend it to anyone who is having health challenges, although the help he offers is far broader than assistance with health difficulties.

Anya - nurse, Austria

Already the first day I felt jubilant, everything was moving fast, I felt inspired and felt as if I had tailwind carrying me on... that gave me enthusiasm.
I must say I was in quite difficult life situation...
As I was receiving those insights, I felt great help by being able to openly discuss with confidence... because there were also some negative stuff, things I would never thought of, which I never recognized in my consciousness before... discussing about those was critically important... at the end, I can say Matsya provided tremendous help for my personal development.

We do not diagnose. Diagnosis is the sole right of conventional mainstream medicine. We fully support all conventional medical procedures, requirements and recommendations. When it comes to health issues and sickness, we encourage seeking official medical diagnosis and treatment. According to personal choice, one may decide to explore alternative and complementary medical options such as those offered by Quantum Holistic Centre.

Although Ayurveda, Homeopathy, Natural Medicine, Quantum Field therapy, Linguistic Wave Genetics and other modalities we rely on, are not recognized by mainstream medicine, all are supported by modern scientific evidence and research. An increasing number of scientific researches confirm their effectiveness, despite the fact that - just like quantum mechanics itself - those modalities are still confusing the majority of mainstream scientists.

We do not guarantee healing or health recovery. Health depends on many factors, and usually the keys for healing are held by the person who got sick – we endeavour to help identifying those keys.
